- DESCRIPTION: Girlfriends Meet | Up® serves to inspire and create genuine friendships through a private social club with an exclusive focus on building friendships between women. Membership into our club allows women to connect with other unique, local women through club events as well as “The Pathway to Friendship™,” a social media website exclusively for active Girlfriends Meet | Up members. Our members are afforded the finest in luxury at every event and their privacy is our top priority as networking and member solicitation is strongly prohibited. We are committed to providing fun, exciting, and fulfilling social gatherings for the purpose of entertainment and fostering the natural bond, camaraderie, between women. Wallace Wattles, a famous American author, said, “People are seeking more food, more clothing, better shelter, more luxury, more beauty, more knowledge, more pleasure - increase in something, more life,” and Girlfriends Meet | Up believes that genuine friendships increase life, encourage women to get out and do more, and overall creates a desire to live one’s best life every day.
