Lonely No More: Club Goes National to Be the Solution
Seeking to Inspire, Empower, and Enrich the Lives of Women Nationwide

DALLAS, Texas (March 22, 2011) – Girlfriends Meet | Up’s nationwide expansion is the solution to the problem many women face daily: Loneliness. It is the answer women have been seeking that will give them the chance to experience the joys of life. The company’s goal is to help facilitate friendships and enhance the lives of women nationwide.

Girlfriends Meet | Up is not a singles group; it is a private social club for women with an exclusive focus on friendships. They believe that genuine friendships inspire, empower and enrich the lives of everyone involved. No matter her status, no one should have to do life alone. Girlfriends Meet | Up is for any woman looking to make new friends.

In this generation, Girlfriends Meet | Up is giving women the chance to do fun and exciting things with other women who share their interests. According to Jacqueline P. Piper, founder of Girlfriends Meet | Up, every woman needs a way to escape life’s pressures for a little while - “me” time, a day at the spa, a girlfriends’ movie day, or a night out on the town. Women should be celebrated. They should have the choice to opt in and do the more pleasurable things in life.

Girlfriends Meet | Up is hosting The Girlfriends Weekend in Dallas, Texas June 24th - 26th, 2011. It’s a members-only, weekend-long anniversary event combined with the Girlfriends Glam Awards, an opulent awards gala celebrating women. The theme of the weekend is “Keeping You Connected,” and to emphasize the theme the club will roll out what they deem to be their most valuable asset to their friendship-building expansion to date: “The Pathway to Friendship,” a members-only social media website that will allow members to connect with others around the country as well as find new friends locally.

Girlfriends Meet | Up is headquarter in Dallas, TX. Their advertisements are currently represented in over 100 markets nationally in the menus of The Cheesecake Factory restaurants.
